HARRISON'S ADMINISTRATION

The remarkable unanimity with which the Republican conventions throughout the country have endorsed the administration of President Harrison, must be highly gratifying to that distinguished gentleman. This action of the conventions has been hearty and enthusiastic, and every word of favor is palpably deserved. Few administrations have been so free from flaw; few have been so worthy of universal approval. It defies the tongue of scandal, for it has been clear, clean and honest. It has won the confidence of the business community, because its whole course has been in accord with safety and conducive to general prosperity. It has won the admiration of every true patriot, because it has been vindicated by the noblest spirit of patriotism. It has commanded the good will of the financial world, because its fixed policy and its moral influence have at all times been on the side of honest money, and in open opposition to a debased currency. The advocates of free silver coinage have never looked to that source for comfort, for they and all others have been fully conscious that the Harrison administration is their steadfast foe. During all the bubble about free silver in the Democratic House of Representatives, the business interests of the country were wholly undisturbed, because every business man knew that the bold, bad scheme of the majority in that body would never be crystallized into enacted law while the President's pen was ready to smite it with a veto.

All in all this administration has been a notable one. There can be no surprise that it should receive the compliment of such general approbation. It holds its place among the few that have uniformly sustained a praiseworthy reputation. It is the peer of any one among them all. No one among them has been so free from reproach; no one has had such good ground to challenge adverse criticism; no one has received and deserved higher praise. It will bear to have the light turned upon it at all points. It can expose itself to keen-eyed scrutiny without fear of forfeiting that priceless sanction which is accorded by the just judgment of mankind.

RESORTING TO A QUIBBLE.

The Doylestown Democrat asked a very simple question last week and called upon the GAZETTE to answer. It wanted to know which was preferable, the importation of foreign goods free of duty or the admission of foreign laborers to make the goods here. We showed the distinguished editor of the Democrat, to our satisfaction, and as far as we know to his, that of the two schemes, the admission of the foreign workmen, from the American standpoint, was much more desirable than closing up our factories here by reducing the tariff duties to a point where American manufacturers would be unable to compete with foreign ones. The reasons we gave for the faith that in us must have been convincing to the Democrat, for without undertaking to controvert them it resorts to a petty quibble and characterizes the GAZETTE's statements as a plea for the admission of foreign workmen to compete with home labor. The GAZETTE has always claimed that American industries and American workers should receive full and ample protection. It wants all existing American industries prosperous. It wants to see the creation of more. It is in favor of the employment of American workmen at fair prices. It does not want foreign goods, made by foreign laborers at starvation wages, to compete with our home products. It is therefore in favor of that eminently wise Republican measure known as the McKinley bill.

—Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, in speaking upon the free-will bill in the House of Representatives, said that he could cite innumerable instances where the removal of the duty resulted in a reduction of the price of the article, and he did name two articles—guanine and sugar. The duty on guanine was purely a revenue duty, such as was levied on coffee and tea, none of these articles having grown in this country, and the duty is always added to the cost of such articles. The duty on sugar was a revenue duty, with incidental protection to the sugar growers of this country. The effort was made through this duty to enable the sugar producers to grow enough of that necessary article to supply the home demand. But seventy-five years of protection failed to give a home product of more than one-eleventh of the home consumption, so that the duty on sugar was like that on guanine, tea, and coffee—purely a revenue duty, because it did not increase home production to the amount of home consumption. Mr. Richardson absolutely failed in his attack on protection, when he cited these two articles as being cheaper because of the removal of the duty. He succeeded, however, in proving that the Democratic idea of "a tariff for revenue only" is a tax levied on the consumers. "A tariff for revenue only" would be levied on tea, coffee, guanine, sugar, cocoa, india rubber, dye woods, camphor, spices, and other tropical products, as these articles are not grown in this country, and the duty would be added to the importer's cost. That is the Democratic policy.

—There is no reason why foreigners of intelligence and good character should not be welcomed to America. They make respectable citizens. The American workmen need have no fears that they will be crowded out of their workshops and factories. Notwithstanding the great tide of emigration that flowed to this country from 1880 to 1890 the price of labor has advanced. Edward Atkinson, the well known statistician, says that general wages were higher in 1890 than they were in 1880 by from ten to forty per cent., according to the grade of the workman, and also cites the fact that there has been during the twenty-seven years since 1865, subject to temporary variation and fluctuations "a steady advance in the rate of wages, a steady reduction in the cost of labor per unit of product, and a corresponding reduction in the price of goods of almost every kind to the consumer." What else would the editor of the Doylestown Democrat have? What more could he wish? Wages steadily increased, the cost of manufactured articles correspondingly reduced and the country generally prosperous, would appear to be satisfactory to any one interested in the prosperity of the country.

—Of course, there are cases where the reduction of a revenue tariff has resulted in lowering the prices of articles. What the Democrats are asked to supply is an instance where prices have been advanced in consequence of the imposition of a protective duty and after it has gone into full operation.

Woman Is Enlarging Her Sphere.
We are always glad to chronicle progress on the part of the fair sex. Wherever they seem to be rivaling men in any of the industries, or when they seek out of ordinary new avenues to the pursuit of happiness and prosperity, we endeavor to give them full credit. We call attention, therefore, to the fact that six women, sisters, have recently been arrested as stage robbers. They were dressed as men, however. This was a concession to prejudice which is unworthy a strong minded female robber. "The women were robbers so that their appearance might suggest that they belonged to the awe inspiring sex. We must infer from this that they had no confidence in petticoats when it came to an emergency like this. The thought of six women holding him up and robbing him would have so maddened a stage driver that probably sixteen women could not have held him. So the girls took refuge in trousers as a sort of scarecrow."

Another act of theirs was unworthy. When the detectives of Salmon Falls, Ida., traced the six girls to their lair and arrested them, they whined at once and said their father made them follow stage robbing for a living; that they did not want to do it at all. Now that story is mean, as well as improbable. Girls that could stoop to a stageful of passengers and rob them, holding a pistol at their heads, meanwhile, are hardly the sort of ladies that an old man of any kind could compel to do what was distasteful to them. The tale is genuine. Meantime, on the other side of the world, Behanzin, king of Dahomey, made 9,000 of his warriors march to fight the French, because the women are fiercer and more fearless than his men soldiers. All Dahomey is filled with the lamentation of husbands whose wives have thus been ruthlessly torn from them to go and fight in the cruel war. An Amazon warrior's lot in Dahomey is not a happy one. If the French kill her, then she gains glory; but if she comes back alive and the war has gone against the Dahomeyites, she is labeled for cowardice. There isn't much choice either way.

"Did it ever occur to you to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best spring medicine? Try a bottle this season. It will do you good."

ATLANTIC CITY.

A BOATING SEASON AHEAD FOR THE GREAT RESORT AND THE BEADING'S ROYAL ROUTE.
The popularity of Atlantic City long since reached National proportions, and it continues to grow from year to year. The approaching season promises to be the greatest ever known at this, the greatest of all seaside resorts. The Reading Railroad, whose superbly magnificent line between Philadelphia and Atlantic City has become famous throughout the country as the "Royal Route to the Sea," will continue to be the principal and favorite means of getting to and from the City by the Sea. The Reading's superiority in equipment is generally conceded. Its chief excellence consists in the fact that it has the only double track line of railroad to Atlantic City. The importance of this cannot be overestimated. Not only does it insure the absolute safety of passengers, but it admits of much more reliable service. The Reading line is also several miles shorter than any other road to Atlantic City, and it runs almost as straight as the crow flies. The great "Seventy-five Minute Flyers" are the most rapid of trains in America. For beauty, elegance and speed they are literally beyond rivalry and those of our readers who visit Atlantic City should not fail to experience the delight of a ride on one of these marvelous trains. The summer schedule will comprise a larger number of fast express trains than has ever heretofore been run on any line. Trains will start as frequently as every hour, and to sit up all night, and to be unable to walk without outside, and to hold my arms away from my body, and to have my back and legs bandaged by my faithful wife twice a day. Finally a friend who was visiting at our house, urged me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I began by taking half a teaspoonful. My stomach was all out of order. But the medicine soon corrected this, and in ten weeks I could see a change in the condition of the human which usually covered my body. It was covered by the scales of a crocodile. The scales fell off. I was soon able to give up bandages and crutches. I had a happy marriage. I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for seven months, and since that time, nearly two years, I have not had a headache, and my legs and arms are sound and well.

"I HAVE not used all of one bottle yet. I suffered from asthma for twelve years, experiencing the most distressing dropping in the throat peculiar to that disease, and nose bleed almost daily. I tried various remedies without benefit until last April, when I saw RY'S Sarsaparilla advertised in the Boston Budget. I prepared a bottle, and since the first day's use have had no more bleeding—the soreness is entirely gone.—D. G. Davidson, with the Boston Budget, formerly with Boston Journal."

A Little Girl's Experience in A Light-house.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Treasott are keepers of the Gov. Light-house at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and Delirium Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "bundle of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. "I thank Dr. King's New Discovery for its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at John K. Young's Drug Store."

Mr. S. G. Derry

Of Providence, R. I.

Widely known as proprietor of Derry's Water-proof Harness Oil, tells below of his terrible sufferings from Eczema and his cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

"Gentlemen: Fifteen years ago I had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, which was followed by eczema or salt rheum, breaking out on my right leg. The humor spread all over my legs, back and arms."

A Foul Mass of Sores, swollen and itching terribly, causing intense pain if the skin was broken by scratching and discharging constantly. It is impossible to describe my suffering in those years of agony and torture. I spent in futile efforts to get well, and was discouraged and ready to die. At this time I was advised to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and to sit up all night, and to be unable to walk without outside, and to hold my arms away from my body, and to have my back and legs bandaged by my faithful wife twice a day. Finally a friend who was visiting at our house, urged me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I began by taking half a teaspoonful. My stomach was all out of order. I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for seven months, and since that time, nearly two years, I have not had a headache, and my legs and arms are sound and well.

a Thousand of Dollars

The Delight

of myself and wife at my recovery it is impossible to tell. To all my business friends in Boston and over the country, I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla.

From personal experience, S. G. DERRY, 45 Bradford Street, Providence, R. I.

If you are Bilious, take Hood's Pills.

A Strange Freak.

The wife of our esteemed citizen, Mr. John Rowell, while suffering under a severe attack of the blues, tried to commit the crime of infanticide, but was prevented by the opportune arrival of a neighbor. Her case has been considered by the best doctors in the city, but her husband was highly pleased, after using a course of Sulphur Bitters, to find that she was entirely cured.—Kingston Herald.

Gauze Crepon. Two Summer lovelinesses in one. Wrinkled, crinkled prettiness of the Crepes; filmy flakiness of the fine Gauzes. Both beauties bettered by the union. Until now $1.25, this lot shall float out at 75c. Shades, 14; inches, 43.

Two styles 48-inch Crocodile Crepon—strikingly Crocodile the Crocodiles go—drop from $2 to $1 the yard. Twenty-three delightful dyes. Don't ask the cause, be content to take two Dress Patterns at the Saturday cost of one.

Lupin's Beatrice. Every woman knows that old-time favorite. Fine, soft, with the delicate downiness of a peach. You know it as $1 stuff—and worth it. Here it is at 75c, in cream only. Probably the last you'll ever hear of at the price.

Time now for cool things—for Gingham, Percales, Persian Mulls. Mountain mornings; seaside seasons call for more Dresses to meet more demands.

Here are gray hues for evenings, fresh tints for mornings, dark shades for shadowy days. The woman of taste can find tasteful material. Thread and needle will do all the rest.

Cotton never was cheaper, never more charming, never took lovelier forms. Like its own fields in Summer—gay-tinted, beautiful. Wondrous whiteness o'erstrewn with bright bloom.

Zephyr Gingham—as light almost as the breeze they were named for. Queenly Brandenburgs, where roses and posies run riot; Oxford Cheviots for outings; Lawns and Madras for indoors; Riga Cloth, Batiste, Galatea and all the rest of the Summery sisterhood for special needs.

Polka dot Gingham, 29 in., 45, 50, 60c. Cotton and Silk Gingham, 29 in., 75c. Bedford Cord, Crepon and Zephyr Gingham, 25 to 60c. Special bargain, 12½, 15, 20, 25c. Yarns Gingham, 12½, 15, 20, 25c. Cambray Cloth, 27 in., 35c. Calico, 27 in., 30c. French Organza Lawns, 31 in., 37½c.

But a mere list means next to nothing. No hint in it of the great heaps of every sort. It is the grandest stock of Dress Cottons in America that we invite you to look at—and choose from if you wish.
